PROFILE

General Fashion Academy is a small-scale dressmaking firm that has been in business since 1970.

It is one of the 15 Companies selected in 2002 by the government of Ghana to launch the president's special initiative (PSI) in textile and garment to take advantage of AGOA (Africa Growth & Opportunity Act) & also one of the most recognized dressmaking firms in the Kumasi Metropolis.

General Fashion Academy (GFA) is own by a Ghanaian named Nana Osei Asibey Bonsu, the formal Regional Chairman of Ghana National Tailors and Dressmaker's Association Ashanti Region.

After touring some parts of European Countries with the trade of dressmaking and designing. He has finally settled home to establish the General Fashion Academy (GFA) as a FASHION SCHOOL.

General Fashion Academy School is opened to all people who are interested in fashion as their vocation and also people who wants to upgrade their field of studying to suit their standard.

Part 1 FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

The conditions of this agreement provide protection for our parents, as well as our school. In order to assure that we can provide these services, it is essential that the program be financially stable. Salaries and overhead expenses cannot be reduced because of absentee losses. This contract is a commitment that you will financially support the enrolment space guaranteed for your child. Failure to meet your financial commitment may result in termination of enrollment.

I. A receipt of payment will be issued after every payment of fees.
II. Refunds will not be made for Statutory Holidays or any absent days (including vacations or illness).

Part 2 WITHDRAWAL PROCEDURES

I. Signed, written notice of permanent withdrawal by you must be given to the school thirty (30) business days in advance. If the required notice is not received, full program fees will be charged.
II. The provision of our service is conditional upon compliance of both you and your child to our Code of Behaviour. Behaviour from an applicant that poses a safety hazard will not be accepted and may result in immediate withdrawal.
III. Should the Supervisor of the school determines that a child cannot adjust to the program, or if the parent had not upheld the enrollment, the applicant will be withdrawn and this agreement will be terminated.

Part 3 CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

The safety of all students is our primary concern. The following expectations are necessary to promote a happy, safe and comfortable atmosphere. The applicant and the parents at all times shall:

- Respect the building and equipment as well as the personal property of others.
- Use acceptable language at school.
- Be courteous of others.
- Resolve conflict in a peaceful manner.
- Conduct themselves in a manner which allows others to feel safe from verbal and physical abuse.
- Show personal respect for all individuals through behaviour and language.
- Be punctual and avoid lateness.
- Inform the authorities in case of any illness.
- Respect teaching and non-teaching staff of the school.
- Put on prescribed uniform on campus or at any school gathering.
